Have Hope in Your Fellow-men

Dean and Kathleen Hughes

Elder and Sister Hughes will further explore the retreat theme and scripture. "Fear not, little flock; do good." As we serve in our communities let us strive to set good examples to those around us. But "doing good" isn't enough. It's just as important to "be good". Let your lights shine in this dark world.

Have Hope in Your Heart

Edye Wagstaff

Each person's journey is unique, but if we remember our Savior in all we do and recognize his tender mercies, we can rise above our deepest despair to find peace. Once peace is achieved, we use that life experience to help our fellow-men on their road to eternity. Edye will share with us her personal journey towards finding hope again while the life of her family was slowly crumbling before her eyes.

Have Hope in Your Savior

Jillette Dayton

As we learn more about our Savior and His divine role and how it applies to our lives, we will increase our faith in Him, so we too can live our lives without fear and be full of light and hope. We will learn how to apply the Atonement to our lives. As our understanding grows, our hope in the world will grow, and we will be better able to handle the situations that will come up in our daily lives.

Have Hope in Your Heritage

Kim Smith

Kim will teach us lessons that we learn of Hope from her great-great grandfather and mother, Joseph and Emma Smith. As we learn from their incredible experiences we will be able to see how we can apply those same characteristics into our own lives. Their stories will truly inspire us.

Have Hope in Your Journey

Jean Keaton

Experience has taught that humbly yielding to the Spirit in times of adversity not only provides added peace and strength, but essential sanctifying lessons that prepare us to serve in ways we never imagined. When we submit to the Father's will with total trust, His love and wisdom will be revealed, & the pieces fall into place as we are magnified in the service of His kingdom.
